CANNERS WIN THEIR GAME IN THE ELEVENTH

The Ogden Cannery won their fourth game out of six played with the Medicine Hat club yesterday afternoon by the score of 8 to 7. It took eleven innings, however, to turn the trick and Bart Woolums was the hero. In the eleventh inning he hit a three-bagger to the new east-side billboard and beat Daniel's throw to the plate after the latter had caught Rossback's fly.

It was anybody's game up to the finish, the Canadians getting a lead of two runs in the first inning and the Cannery going ahead in the third. The score was tied in the eighth and each got a run in the ninth. Both were blanked in the tenth and Woolums brought home the pork for the Cannery in the eleventh. Woolums' last hit, by the way, was the only three-bagger secured in the game.

Hall was on the mound for Ogden and was touched for 13 hits. Six errors by his teammates may account to some extent for the somewhat large number of bingles. The big southpaw, as usual did some fine fielding, getting six assists chalked up to his credit. He also struck out seven men and allowed four passes. Manager Dunn was on the mound for Medicine Hat and allowed 11 hits, walked five men and struck out eight. A unique feature of the game was that an equal number of men went to bat for each team, 41. The batting of Whaling was one of the features. He hit safe five times out of six times up and three of his hits were for two bases each.

In the first inning the visitors scored two runs on two base hits and in their half, the Cannery were blanked. In the second, Medicine Hat scored another one and Ogden scored two on a single by Raedel. Cobb and Jones got on the bases and Rossback and Carnes struck out. Raedel then hit through third base, bringing in the two scores. Hall made the third out by fanning.

Medicine Hat got nothing in the third and Ogden went ahead two points by getting three runs. It happened thusly: Murphy was out on a fly. Woolums got a single and then purloined second. Rossback hit for two bags and Woolums scored. Jones was thrown out at first and Rossback went to third. Cobb was walked and stole second and in the excitement Rossback stole home. Rossback's single scored Cobb and Carnes fanned.

In the fourth, Barth was thrown out at first. Daniel's singled and stole second. Fleiger was struck out and Daniel's scored on Whaling's single. Martin reached first on Carnes' error and for the bad play, Carnes was taken out of the game by Manager Glimin and replaced by Wessler. Hillman flied out. The Cannery failed to progress in their half and Medicine Hat did likewise in their half of the fifth.

Ogden got over one run in this inning. Woolums was out on three strikes and Rossback walked. Jones hit for two bases and Rossback scored. Jones tried to stretch the hit for another base and was put out in the attempt. Cobb singled and Risberg was out at first.

The sixth started with a two-bagger by Barth. Daniel's was out on a foul fly and Fleiger was out. Hall to Woolums. Whaling duplicated Barth's hit and the latter scored. Martin flied out to Murphy.

Wessler was first up for the Cannery and got to second base on two errors by Barth, poor pegs. Raedel was out on a fly and Hall singled but was put out trying to steal second. Murphy flied to Daniels.

Both teams were blanked in the seventh and in the eighth, the visitors scored one run on a hit and two errors. Ogden stood pat in their half.

With the score evened by Medicine Hat's run in the eighth it was held even with a tally apiece in the ninth. Whaling hit for two bases and Martin advanced him with a sacrifice. Hillman walked and Dunn sacrificed, scoring Whaling. Hillman was out at second on Raedel's peg.

The Cannery secured theirs in this manner. Woolums got a two-bagger. Rossback and Jones went out on flies. Cobb hit the pill for two bags and Woolums scored. Risberg flied out.

Both teams tightened up in the tenth and two goose eggs were chalked up. In the eleventh Whaling got a single and Daniels, Fleiger and Martin were thrown out at first. Murphy went to bat for Ogden and was out at first. Then came Woolums' three-bagger and Rossback's sacrifice fly, which brought the Ogden first baseman home.

SATURDAY'S GAMES

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Cincinnati, O., April 21.—Pittsburgh outbatted Cincinnati and easily won the last game of the series today, 5 to 2. Yingling started well for the locals, striking out three men in the first inning, but after that appeared easy for the visitors. He was taken out at the end of the sixth inning after being hit for eleven hits, which netted five runs. Douglass, a recruit, from the Northwestern league, who succeeded Yingling, did not allow a hit in the three innings he pitched, and only one man reached first base.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 21.—Boston broke its losing streak today when three singles and an error by Robert in the ninth inning gave the visitors the deciding tally of a 4 to 3 score over Philadelphia. Both Crutcher and Oeschger were hit hard, but the visitors cut off several runs for the Phillies by sharp fielding.

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 21.—Demaree with his slow delivery had Brooklyn at his mercy and they lost their first game, 6 to 0. It was the New York's first victory. They batted both Reulbach and Allen hard in timely fashion. Larry Doyle, lead in the assault with a homer and a single and scoring three runs.

St. Louis, Mo., April 21.—Darkness ended the game between St. Louis and Chicago here tonight with the score tied at 2 to 2 at the end of the fifteenth inning.

One run behind in the ninth inning, St. Louis scored one and tied the score. Magee doubled and went to third on Miller's out, scoring when Wilson shot a single to left field. Thereafter neither side was able to score.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Chicago, April 21.—The Chicago Americans played a batting game today and won the final contest of the series with St. Louis 6 to 1. Benz held the visitors to six scattered hits. The locals started their attack upon Pitcher Mitchell with Collins' double.

New York, April 21.—Through spectacular ninth and tenth inning rallies the New York Americans evened their series with Washington by winning the second game in the tenth inning, 3 to 2, today.

Reeling, the visitors' young left-hander pitched great ball until the ninth inning, when with the use of pinch hitters and base runners Chance's men tied the score.

New York won in the tenth when with one out Maisel doubled, took third on Moeller's bad throw and scored on Hartzell's single.

Fisher and Cole pitched brilliantly for New York, both Washington's runs being the result of infield errors.

Detroit, April 21.—The hitting of Cobb and Crawford today was responsible for Cleveland's seventh consecutive defeat, Detroit winning 7 to 4. For the third time this season the Tigers had to come up from behind to win. John Williams, the Hawaiian pitcher, made his major league debut for Detroit.

The debut lasted one inning. During that inning, the first Cleveland obtained four runs. Coveleskie pitched the remainder of the game and was invincible.

Boston, April 21.—Boston and Philadelphia battled for thirteen innings today without decision, darkness ending the game with the score 1 to 1.

Leonard and Shawkey both pitched brilliantly. Leonard struck out nine of the Athletics. He fanned Baker twice when Philadelphia had a man on base. Shawkey kept the Boston hits well scattered and did not allow a hit between the third and tenth innings.

In the thirteenth Shawkey reached second with one out, Daley lined to Speaker, who ran into second and completed a double play unassisted.

FEDERAL LEAGUE.

Kansas City, Mo., April 21.—Moseley pitching for Indianapolis, held Kansas City to four hits today, enabling his team to win six to two.

The prevalent opinion regarding the outcome of the National league race this season seems to argue the leading of the Giants. And while no Delphic oracle has been consulted in the matter and though prognostications in baseball at this season are none too dependable, it appears that Pittsburgh, Boston and Cincinnati will make the most vigorous fights for places in the first division.
